

Congresswoman Gabrielle Gifford's invites all high school students and their parents/guardians to join her for the Academy Day 2010 on Saturday, April 24, 2010 from 1:00-3:00 pm at Canyon Del Oro High School little theater. Representatives from five service academies as well as representatives from each of the ROTC components will speak. Applications for nominations from Congresswoman Giffords to the service academies will be available to interested students. Obtaining a congressional nomination is the first step toward securing an appointment to one of the academies.
